

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Gary E. Weedman

Gary E. Weedman is President of Johnson Bible College. He formerly served as Senior Vice President of TCM International Institute, Provost at Palm Beach Atlantic University, and Vice President for Academic Affairs and Dean at Milligan College.

He was born in Evansville, Indiana, and spent the early years of his life in Fairfield, Illinois, where he was graduated from high school in 1961. He was graduated from Johnson Bible College with an A.B. degree in 1964. He received his M.A. degree from Western Illinois University, Macomb, Illinois, in 1967, and his Ph.D. degree from Indiana University in 1971. He has also studied at Lincoln Christian Seminary, Lincoln, Illinois, and the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tennessee.

From November 1968 to June 1969, Dr. Weedman served as the founding campus minister of the Indiana University Campus Christian Ministry. He served as minister of the Maple Grove Christian Church, Bloomington, Indiana, from 1966-68. Previous to that he served as minister to the Burnside Christian Church, Burnside, Illinois, from 1964-66. He taught speech at Indiana University from 1966 to 1969.

Dr. Weedman's other teaching and administrative duties include: associate professor of Greek and homiletics at Johnson Bible College, 1969-1976; Assistant Dean of Interdisciplinary Studies at Lincoln Christian College, 1976-1982; Academic Dean at Lincoln Christian College, 1982-1987. He occasionally teaches in the areas of New Testament, hermeneutics, Greek, and homiletics.

Dr. Weedman is a past member of the American Association for Higher Education, the National Association of Core Curriculum (serving as past president of the latter group), and the local Kiwanis Club. He has traveled in Western Europe, Eastern Europe, Central Asia, and Japan, serving as guest lecturer in seminaries and colleges in Romania, the Soviet Union, Yugoslavia, Japan, Uzbekistan, and Great Britain. He has written a number of articles and books and recently made a presentation at the International Society of Biblical Literature in Groningen, the Netherlands (2004)

He is married to the former Janis Morgan and is the father of four sons, Mark, Matthew, Micah, and Joshua and six granddaughters.
