

Privacy Policy – Jamestown Business College

1) GENERAL

Jamestown Business College respects the privacy of every individual who visits our website. To protect your privacy more thoroughly, we provide this information explaining our online information practices and the options available to you about the way information is collected and used. This notice applies to all information collected or submitted to this website.

2) PERSONALLY IDENTIFIABLE INFORMATION

Jamestown Business College will not collect personally identifiable information about you (specifically, your name, address, telephone number, social security number, or e-mail address) unless you provide it voluntarily. If you do submit your personally identifiable information, we may use it as follows: we will use it to complete the contact or request; we may store and process it to a database to understand your needs more clearly and how we can improve our services; and we may use it to contact you. We will not give or sell your individual information to any outside company for use in marketing or solicitation, and we will maintain the confidentiality of your personal information, which will be used to support your relationship with Jamestown Business College.

3) MINOR CHILDREN (UNDER AGE 13)

All persons age 13 or under must ask for and receive their parents' or guardian's permission before sending any information about themselves to us or to anyone online or over the internet. Parents or guardians of minor children under the age of 13 must send us an e-mail indicating the approval of the child's participation in any of the service in any online form that require the collection of personal information on our website.

4) PARENTS/GUARDIANS

Any personal information collected by Jamestown Business College from children is used for the sole purpose of delivering the requested information or materials. If you have a question or concern, or would like to review or delete your child's personally identifiable information, contact us at the e-mail address listed at the bottom of this statement.

5) THIRD-PARTY WEBSITES

Links to third-party websites on the Jamestown Business College site are provided solely as a convenience to you. If you utilize these links, you will leave the Jamestown Business College website. Jamestown Business College does not monitor or review any third-party site, nor does it control or assume responsibility for the content or privacy policies of any of these sites. Thus, Jamestown Business College does not endorse or make any representations about them, or any information, or other products or materials found there, or any results that may be obtained from using them. If you decide to access a third-party site linked to the Jamestown Business College site, you do so at your own risk.

6) HOW YOU CAN CORRECT YOUR INFORMATION

If you have any questions regarding this privacy policy or would like to have your personally identifiable information changed or deleted from our records, please e-mail us or call 716-664-5100.

7) HOW TO CONTACT US
